FACT SHEET

Did you know...

1. There are five dioceses in the Province of British Columbia
 - a. The Archdiocese of Vancouver is under the leadership of Archbishop J. Michael Miller CSB who was appointed June 1, 2007. The Archdiocese covers the entire southwest coast of BC and is bordered on the east by Kamloops and Nelson Diocese. Prince George Diocese forms the boundary on the north.
 - b. Victoria is the smallest diocese geographically in the province of British Columbia. It encompasses all of Vancouver Island, the Gulf Islands and adjacent islands. Bishop Gary Gordon, the 17th Bishop of Victoria, began his ministry in Victoria in August 2014.
 - c. The Diocese of Kamloops is truly the interior of British Columbia. It is touched on the north by Prince George, the east by Nelson and the southwest by Vancouver. Most Reverend David J. Munroe has been the Bishop since 2002. He is the 5th Bishop of Kamloops.
 - d. The Diocese of Prince George is the most northern diocese in BC.

7. The largest diocese geographically is Vancouver with over 14,000 students in 40 elementary and 9 secondary schools.
8. Island Catholic Schools are located on Vancouver Island, 48 km from the mainland. There are approximately 1800 students in 6 elementary schools and one high school on the Island.
9. Prince George Catholic Schools have a rich history of dedicated Catholic volunteers known as the Frontier Apostolate and many religious sisters and brothers to thank for the nine schools in the diocese. Today more than _____ students attend.
10. The oldest Catholic school in BC is St. Ann's Academy in Kamloops. Two other schools in Kamloops, plus a school in Vernon, Quesnel and Williams Lake provide Catholic education for _____ students.
11. Like the other diocese, Nelson in the southeast corner of BC has religious sisters and brothers to thank for service which enabled Catholic education to flourish. Today _____ schools are in operation for _____ students.
